3.2 ACO INVITATIONALS (NON-POINTS EARNING)

The term “ACO Invitational” refers to any non-points earning event coordinated by the ACO Corporate Team.

ACO Headquarters is constantly working with existing and future sponsors to continuously add bigger and better events in order to reward ACO Members. Some ACO Invitationals may be open to all players, while others may require a player to have reached “PRO” status or to have reached a certain level of points in order to participate. ACO Invitationals will be added to the Event Calendar as they are secured.

EXAMPLE: ACO Players' Championship

3.3 ACO QUALIFIERS (NON-POINTS EARNING)

An ACO Qualifier refers to any tournament, league, or event in which the prize is an entry, or credit toward an entry to another upcoming ACO Event.

Qualifiers are open for anyone to coordinate and will receive all promotional benefits of the ACO.

CO's can purchase upcoming Event tickets and coordinate

Qualifiers whenever they choose. COs running ACO Qualifiers may receive a discount on ticket prices.

The entry fee and format for an ACO Qualifier is at the discretion of the CO. Prize will be the purchased ticket to the ACO Event and other cash and prizes can be awarded at the discretion of the CO

3.4 ACO WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS OF CORNHOLE (NON-POINTS EARNING)

The ACO World Championships of Cornhole is the annual ACO Season ending tournament held in July which crowns the best cornhole players in the World.

To be eligible to participate in any World Divisions at the ACO World Championships of Cornhole 13, a player must qualify for EACH Division in which they would like to participate separately. A player must meet one of the following criteria for EACH division in which they would like to participate (World Singles, World Doubles, World Seniors, World Womens, World Juniors):

Participate in the Division in 6 Regionals, during 6 separate months during ACO Season 13

OR Participate the Division in 4 Regionals, during 4 separate months and 1 Major (any location) during ACO Season 13

OR Participate in the Division in 2 Regionals, during 2 separate months and 2 Majors (any locations) during ACO Season 13

OR Participate in the Division in 3 Majors (any locations) during ACO Season 13

3.5 WHAT IS THE ACO MASTERS SERIES (POINTS EARNING TOURNAMENTS)?

The ACO Masters Series is a world-wide Cornhole “league” in which ACO Members compete for points and prizes in Singles and/or Doubles tournament play to acquire or achieve a World or Social Standing. The ACO Masters Series is comprised of a series of points tournaments held between September and May each calendar year. A player may choose to compete in singles and/or doubles.

3.6 ABOUT THE ACO MASTERS SERIES TOURNAMENTS (POINTS EARNING)

There are three types of ACO Masters Series tournaments in which players and/or teams can earn points:

- ACO Regionals
- ACO Majors
- ACO Conference Championships

3.7 ACO MASTERS SERIES MAJORS

Events in which players from all Regions and throughout the cornhole community come together at one location to compete for points and prizes.

Coordinated by the ACO Headquarters Team

Divisions at each Major will include World Singles, World Doubles, Seniors Singles, Womens Singles, and Juniors Singles.

Majors will be two day events:

- Friday night: Seniors Singles, Womens Singles, and Juniors Singles
- Saturday: World Singles and World Doubles

Seniors, Womens, and Juniors tourneys will all be played at the same time, so a player can only participate in one of these Divisions. However, players from these Divisions will have an opportunity to participate in the World Singles and World Doubles

Social Singles, Social Doubles, Coed, Mini Boards, and Frame Games will be added to Major events when time and space permits. Check the details of each individual Major for Social details

There is a projected goal of 16-20 Majors during ACO Season 13. These will be held at unique locations across the U.S.

Playing format at each Major will be standard from one location to the next throughout the Season

A player can participate in as many Majors during the season as they wish

Of the Majors held throughout the season, a player/team's (3) best finishes will count toward their World Standing Points total. Once a player competes in his/her 4th Masters Series Major, their lowest score will be dropped from the list, and so on.

3.8 ACO MASTERS SERIES REGIONALS

3.10 REGIONAL POINTS SCALE:

Singles players and Doubles teams participating in ACO Regionals are awarded ACO World Standing Points based on their finish according to the following scale:

- 1st Place = 25pts
- 2nd Place = 24 pts
- 3rd Place = 23 pts
- 4th Place = 22 pts
- 5th-6th Place = 20 pts
- 7th-8th Place = 18 pts
- 9th-12th Place = 16 pts
- 13th-16th Place = 14 pts
- 17th and over = 12pts

Since players/teams can participate in up to 4 Regionals per month, each month's points total will be divided by the amount of Regionals in which they participated, creating an averaged single score for the month.

EXAMPLE:

Eric participates in 3 Cornhole De Mayo Singles tourneys during the month of May

Cincy, OH - 3rd place - 23pts
 Sydney, OH - 5th place - 20pts
 Lexington, KY - 2nd place - 24pts
 Points earned -  $23+20+24=67$

Points total divided by number of Regionals played
 $67/3 = 22.33$

Regional points applied to Standings for Cornhole de Mayo
 = 22.33

Of the (9) months in which Masters Series Regionals are held throughout the season, a player or team's 6 best monthly scores will count toward their final point total. Once a player competes in his/her 7th Regional month, their lowest score will be dropped from the list, and so on.
