THE ACO OFFERS:

- ACO REGIONAL TOURNAMENTS Players participate in ACO Regionals to earn points towards their ACO World Standings. Regionals are coordinated by ACO Certified Officials in their local areas.

ACO World Standings are used to seed players for future tournaments, award prizes (Jersey, Player/Team of the Season, Corny Forty, TopGun Twenty, etc.), designate ACO-PRO players, and earn spots in the ACO World Championships of Cornhole.
- ACO MAJOR TOURNAMENTS Players participate in ACO Majors against players from other Regions and earn points towards their ACO World Standings. Majors are coordinated by ACO Corporate in 30+ locations per Season across the US.
- ACO INVITATIONAL TOURNAMENTS Invited players compete for cash, prizes, and prestige. ACO Invitationals are coordinated by ACO Corporate and may be added to the schedule during the Season. Players do not earn ACO World Standings points.
 - » Examples of Invitational Tournaments (Season 19):
 - ACO Gulf Coast Classic
 - ACO Field of Dreams Go the Distance Festival
ACO players may earn invitations based on World Standing, ACO-PRO status, or other credentials. All formats TBD.
- ACO STATE CHAMPIONSHIP OF CORNHOLE
Players who reside within a State compete for purses and Championship titles and jerseys. ACO Officials may apply to be the coordinator for a State Championship. More details on this process TBA.
- ACO WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS OF CORNHOLE
The ACO World Championships of Cornhole is the annual ACO Season ending tournament held in July which crowns the best cornhole players in the World, on ACO World Cornhole Day, the last Saturday in July every year.

ACO TOURNAMENTS

2.5 ACO REGIONAL TOURNAMENT FORMAT

Seeding – Regional Divisions will be seeded based on that Division's Standings

- If no Standings are available for the first Regional of the Season, then the bracket will be randomly seeded.
- Once the seeding has been determined, bracket play can begin. (Double Elimination bracket)
- A player can come from the loser's bracket and earn 1st.

Scoreholio

- All players are required to use the same email in Scoreholio as they used for their ACO Membership. If the emails are different, you will need to let Whitney Garner know ASAP at: co@americancornhole.com.

NOTE: When players' emails are not the same in Scoreholio and ACO, their points will not sync correctly.

Membership

- Players that DO NOT have a current Season 19 World Membership or Points Membership will not be allowed to participate in any ACO event until a Membership has been purchased.
 - » Players can still participate in Regionals even if they obtain a Worlds or Points Membership the day of the event. Proof of purchase must be shown to the Certified Official at the event.

Blind Draw Doubles Format

- Each player must register individually.
- No walkers. There must be an even number of players. Last person to register may be required to drop out.
- Once all players have registered, Doubles Teams are randomly drawn by Scoreholio.
- Randomly seeded teams are placed into a Double Elimination bracket.
- A Team can come from the loser's bracket and earn 1st.
- ACO Blind Draw Doubles Points will be awarded to each individual Player on the Team based on their finish, and the Standings will consist of the individual Players.

2.6 ACO MAJORS

- Events in which Players from all Regions come together at one location to compete for Points and prizes.
- Coordinated by the ACO Corporate Team.
- Playing format at each ACO Major will be standard from one location to the next throughout the Season.
 - » Players or Teams will participate in pool play with the top finishers from each pool advancing to the Championship bracket and/or Tiers.
- Players or Teams may participate in as many Majors as they like during the Season.
- Of the Majors held throughout the season, a Player or Team's 4 best finishes will count toward their Standings total. Once a Player or Team competes in their 5th Major, their lowest score will be dropped from the list, and so on.
- Majors schedule: AmericanCornhole.com/majors

2.10 ACO-PRO SERIES STANDINGS

- At the conclusion of the ACO Season, top players in the ACO-PRO Standings will be awarded prize purse payouts based on their finish
- ACO-PRO Series Standings will be comprised of 2 elements:

NEW
FOR SEASON 19

- #1 - The player's total number of Skins earned during the course of the Season. Each Skin on the Standings will be represented by 12 points
- #2 - The player's 4 best ACO Frame Games
 - » Each time a player improves on their ACO Frame Game, that score will be used in the Standings

NOTE: All ACO-PRO players who participate in the ACO Frame Game will earn their Frame Game score towards their Standings regardless of advancing to the Championship Bracket or not

NEW
FOR SEASON 19

2.11 ACO-PRO SKINS

- The 16 Players who advance from the Qualifying Round will be seeded according to their Frame Game score and placed into a single elimination bracket

ACO Skins Format

- Each game will be worth a total of 13 "Skins".
- Each Frame of a game is equal to one 1 Skin.
A Player earns a Skin by outscoring their opponent during the given Frame. It doesn't matter if they are outscored by 10 points or 1 point, the result is winning 1 Skin.
- Each Skin is worth a certain dollar value (TBA).
- If the Frame is a push, then that Skin carries over to the next Frame, and so on.
 - » Example: During Frame #1 of the game, Player 1 and Player 2 "push" the Frame by each throwing 8pts. The Skin from Frame #1 now carries over, making Frame #2 worth 2 Skins.

- Once a Player wins 7 Skins, the game is over, and that player is the declared the winner and advances to the next round of the bracket.
- All remaining Skins of the original 13 will be awarded to the winner.

Example:

- » A Skin is valued at $25.
- » Player 1 wins the game by a score of 7 Skins to their opponent's 3 Skins.
- » The remaining 3 Skins will be added to the winner's total, equaling 10 Skins.
- » Player 1 will earn $250 for the game, and Player 2 will earn $75 for the

ACO TOURNAMENTS

2.12 ACO MAJOR - SPLITTING CHAMPIONSHIP BRACKETS

Splitting brackets will be necessary when the number of Players reaches a certain threshold:

- Singles
 - » If 64 or less players advance to the Championship bracket (combination of ACO-PRO players who automatically advance and players who advance from pool play), it will remain in one bracket.
 - » If 65-128 players advance to the Championship bracket (combination of ACO-PRO players who automatically advance and players who advance from pool play), it will be split into two brackets.
 - » If 129-256 players advance to the Championship bracket (combination of ACO-PRO players who automatically advance and players who advance from pool play), it will be split into four brackets.
